Scouting seeks to install values in young people and to prepare them to make ethical choices over their lifetime in achieving their full potential.

The Scout named above must appear soon before a "Board of Review" to satisfy the requirements to become an Eagle Scout. You, know him best, can supply evidence of his adherence to the principles of Scouting in his everyday life. After you have counseled with him, please write a frank confidential appraisal, using this form. Place the letter in an envelope, seal it and give it to him or tell him when he can pick it up. The information contained in this letter will be handled in the utmost confidence by the Board of Review as they interview this young man.

The Scout Oath or Promise

On my honor, I will do my best To do my duty to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

The Scout Law

A Scout, is Trustworthy, Loyal, Helpful, Friendly, Courteous, Kind, Obedient, Cheerful, Thrifty, Brave, Clean and Reverent

Using the four points listed above as an outline. Please give us your observations concerning the candidate. Feel free to add any other observations which you think pertinent.

1. Describe his attitude relative to instruction and criticism.
2. Give information relative to his ability and willingness to accept and "follow through" on responsibilities.
3. What recommendations would you make on his improvement?
4. Describe how well he put into practice in his everyday life the principles embodied in the Scout Oath and Law.
